Auction Item Donation Form

The Norwood Park Historical Society will host the 2010 Wine Fest on Saturday, Sept. 11, 2010.

A non-profit organization founded in 1973, the Norwood Park Historical Society owns and supports the Noble-Seymour-Crippen House, local adult and kids' programming, and a historic museum and archives.

We would like to take this opportunity to graciously request any auction donations that you or your organization might be able to contribute to this event. Auction sponsors and donors like you help this event raise enough money to continue supporting Chicago's Oldest House and providing the best historic information in Norwood Park. Thank you for your support!
